

Please do not overturn the NJ Do Not Call List. I am a working mother. Evenings and weekends with my family are precious family time. Before the Do Not Call list my family was bombarded with phone calls by solicitors who were very persistent and sometimes even rude. They should have no right to call my house.